

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 6:11 CR 60097-1-AA

CODY SETH CRAWFORD,

Defendant.

ORDER CONTINUING SUPERVISED RELEASE WITH MODIFICATION OF THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

On March 2, 2016, the defendant appeared before this court, for sentencing following his plea of guilty to Damage to Religious Property. He was sentenced to (5) years probation, upon the standard and special conditions. On April 11, 2018, the defendant's term of probation was revoked. He was sentenced to time served followed by a (3) year term of supervised release. The term of supervised release commenced on April 26, 2018.

On October 2, 2018, this court issued a petition for summons and order to show cause why the term of supervised release order previously granted should not be revoked based on the probation officer's allegation that defendant violated the conditions of release.

On November 13, 2018, the defendant appeared with counsel at a hearing to determine whether defendant's supervised release should not be revoked. The defendant admitted he had violated the conditions of supervised release by failing to reside in and participate in the program of an RRC, unlawfully possessing a controlled substance and failing to refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance.

THE COURT FINDS that the defendant has violated conditions of his supervised release as set forth above, said violation constitutes a Grade C violation pursuant to Guideline § 7B1.1(a)(3). A Grade C violation coupled with the defendant's Criminal History Category of I, produces a suggested imprisonment range of 3 to 9 months (§ 7B1.4 Revocation Table).

IT APPEARS TO THE COURT that the defendant is amenable to supervision.

IT IS ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the term of supervised release is continued under the previously imposed conditions of supervision and the following new conditions:

- 1 You must not go to, or remain at any place where you know controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered without first obtaining the permission of the probation officer. Except as authorized by court order, you must not possess, use or sell marijuana or any marijuana derivative (including THC) in any form (including edibles) or for any purpose (include medical purposes). Without the prior permission of the probation officer, you must not enter any location where marijuana or marijuana derivatives are dispensed, sold, packaged or manufactured.
2. You must not knowingly purchase, possess, distribute, administer, or otherwise use any psychoactive substances (e.g., synthetic marijuana, bath salts, etc.) that impair a person's physical or mental functioning, whether or not intended for human consumption, except with the prior approval of the probation officer.

Dated this 14 day of November, 2018.
